LELIVYTE STRIKES FIRST

Stage 1 of the Ladies' Tour of Qatar saw the triumph of Lithuania's Raissa Lelivyte. The Safi Pasta team leader proved to be the fastest of a 30-rider group on the Al Khor Corniche. Lelivyte also conquers the overall leader's golden jersey, the silver points jersey and the blue jersey for the best young rider.

Ladies' Tour of Qatar

Stage 1: Museum of Islamic Art – Al Khor Corniche, 103.5 kilometres

89 riders at the start; 15 teams

Fine weather, windy

It's become a habit on the Tour of Qatar, whether it concerns the men or the women, wind is a key factor. And windy it was this morning for the first stage of the ladies event. As the 89 riders took off from the Museum of Islamic Arts, situated in the centre of Doha, the wind was partly favourable on the first 45 kilometre of the stage. The first real efficient breakaway occurred after 34 kilometres when South African De Groot (MTW) took off. While the gap with the pack never reached over 20", she was eventually caught five kilometres later.

Getting closer to the first intermediate sprint the pack broke up into several groups with all the main favourites, including title holder Wild, in the first bunch of 22 riders. Perfectly led out by her Cervelo team, Wild went on to win the sprint at km 45 ahead of Duster (CWT) and Van de Ree (NED). On the second part of the day's stage, the leading group was to be caught by two chasing packs as just over 60 riders gathered together.

With just under 25 kilometres to go, Sweden's Andreasson (LLT) managed to break away. Her effort paid off as the gap reached a maximum 40". But facing a strong wind, the pack eventually caught the escapee at kilometre 82. It was then the turn of another Swede, Lindberg (RSC), to give it a go. Her attempt also ended rapidly. The second bonus sprint was once again claimed by Wild ahead of Visser (TCW) and Gunnewijk (ARC).

As the pack entered the city of Al Khor for the final showdown, a front pack of just over 30 riders led by the Cervelo team started preparing for the decisive sprint. And while many were expecting Wild to triumph, Raissa Lalivyte (SAF) powered to the line to earn her first victory in Qatar. The Lithuanian beat Bronzini (ITA) and Hosking (TCW) and captured the overall leader's golden jersey with a 4" advantage over Bronzini and Wild.
